Position:

Join our Threat Management team for a dynamic summer internship focused on cybersecurity operations, vulnerabilities management and threat intelligence. You'll contribute to cybersecurity initiatives, support ongoing security operations activities, and help shape data-driven insights to strengthen IGM security posture.

Responsibilities:

- Support ad-hoc and in-flight security activities across the organization
- Analyze security datasets to identify patterns and anomalies
- Produce clear and concise documentation (e.g., how-to guides, internal communications)
- Coordinate meetings, tasks, and follow-ups with internal stakeholders
- Assist in the development and refinement of threat detection and response activities

Requirements:

- Pro-active, problem-solving attitude and ability to work calmly under pressure
- Interest in cybersecurity and staying current with industry developments
- Desire to continuously improve processes and tools
- Familiarity with data analysis tools and techniques (e.g., Excel, Python, PowerBI)
- Well-organized with strong attention to detail
- Structured thinking and ability to break down complex problems

To apply, please include a resume and transcripts (full unofficial version) by February 8, 2026, at 11:59 pm CST.
